

Committee of Resource Organisations for Mass Programme of Functional Literacy (CORO For Literacy)

CORO, founded in 1989, has evolved into a grassroots owned organisation focussed on an 'integrated community development' approach to tackle endemic issues. CORO also runs active campaigns such as 'Right to Pee' in Mumbai, water scarcity in Satara and issues of Single Women in Marathwada.

- 'Quest Grassroots Leadership Development Programme' has provided mentoring to over 1,200 grassroots leaders to reach over 25,00,000 people living in marginalised communities, in Maharashtra and Rajasthan
- 'Meena Raju Manch', a gender sensitisation programme with Government of Maharashtra, reached an audience of 1,25,000

EdelGive supports the 'Single Women's Leadership Programme'. The Programme is helping women obtain their property rights, improving their livelihood opportunities, registering domestic violence cases, and addressing community issues.

- Reached over 13,000 single women in about 275 villages in 10 blocks of four districts in the Marathwada region
- Nurtured around 800 women leaders in taking incentives to address the community issues
- Enabled access of 2,750 women to resources; over 4,000 women are regularly participating in village meetings

Awards:

- FICCI CSR Award for Women Empowerment (received for the programme supported by EdelGive Foundation), 2015
