

FORD FOUNDATION

Ford Foundation joined EdelGive's clique of visionary donors in 2018 towards a synergized approach to women's empowerment.

Over the past six decades, Ford Foundation's focus in India and South Asia has evolved. It works through association with institutions and movements for economic opportunity and the empowerment of women and girls, with early and long-term engagement in issues as varied as microfinance, urban planning, the Green Revolution in agriculture, Dalit rights, Indian philanthropy, peace and regional security, arts and culture, educational opportunity, scientific research, and civic engagement.
